"Historic Old Hickory."

Quaintly picturesque furniture, modelled after the favorite chairs of Andrew Jackson—and as sturdy and reliable as that famous statesman! To-day Old Hickory, the finest rustic furniture constructed, leads in popularity with those who appreciate its cozy comfort and its excellent workmanship and finish. Hickory, the strongest of our native woods, enters solely into its manufacture. Frameworks are all of the young hickory saplings, with the bark intact. Seats and backs are hand woven of the undergrowth of the hickory bark, and are consequently of superior strength. Odd, graceful shapes, delightfully original and truly rural, result from this combination, and the products admirably withstand wear and weather. Our assortment is the largest ever displayed and includes all the best designs. Very attractive, low prices, and an endless variety of charming novelties. For the Country House nothing surpasses Old Hickory. Send for illustrated Catalogue of Old Hickory.

MURPHY SLEUTHS GET BACK.

Many of the Renowned Detective Sergeants Will Do Desk Duty.

The Murphy detective sergeants, 150 in all, learned from Police Commissioner Greene yesterday that they would all be restored to their full rank and pay to-morrow. The courts have decided that the detective sergeants made by Mayor C. Murphy were legal, and Gen. Greene has been informed that he must find something for them to do.

Gen. Greene will assign nearly all the Murphy men to desk duty. The desk sergeants have been complaining that they have been overworked under the Greene six-section system, and the Commissioner believes that by distributing the Murphy men in the various precincts he will relieve the regular desk sergeants.

It is known that Inspector McCue doesn't want any of the Murphy men in the Detective Bureau. In the bunch are most of the wardmen who were favored in the Devery-Murphy regime.

The decision of Gen. Greene to make the Murphy men do desk duty isn't pleasing to the wardmen who are in line for promotion. They have been figuring that with a number of vacancies in the ranks of the sergeants Gen. Greene would soon make some promotions. With a surplus batch of sergeants the wardmen see their chances slipping away.

Sale of Bannan Collection.

The sale of the Bannan collection of antique furniture, architectural pieces, bronzes, statuary, laces and other art objects was begun yesterday afternoon in the Fifth Avenue Art Galleries. The 200 lots disposed of by James P. Silo, the auctioneer, brought $3,867.85. The sale will be continued every afternoon this week, beginning to-morrow.

A richly carved gilt Louis XV. parlor suite, upholstered in silk brocade with pearl ground, and in seven pieces, fetched the highest price yesterday, $108. It was bid in by Mr. P. Kieselberg. Mr. Kieselberg also paid the next highest price, $148, for a Carrara marble bust of Cleopatra. Among the other pieces sold were a Carrara marble Renaissance wall font, for $108; a Carrara marble Roman garden seat for R. W. Patterson, for $120; and a pair of Aubusson tapestry portieres, Renaissance designs, to C. S. Henry, for $105. Mr. Bannan has been known here for some years as a dealer. He is about to return to Europe for an indefinite period and retire from business in this country.

Quick delivery, when you need it—and no sacrifice of fit or style.

A suit at $15—overcoat same price—trousers $5.

Bring any other tailor's $20 samples for comparison—you'll find our goods the same or better at $15.

Other clothes higher—all reasonable. After all the fit is the thing, and that we guarantee.

Dissatisfied? Then no pay; that's the Loftus way—every day.

Write for samples, style book and self-measuring blanks. Express paid everywhere.

DON'T WANT THROUGH CARS.

West End Board of Trade Says Surface Cars Will Injure Business.

The West End Board of Trade and the Taxpayers Association of Bay Ridge and Fort Hamilton are at odds over the extension of the through elevated service on Fifth Avenue from Thirty-sixth street to Fort Hamilton. Yesterday a committee from the Board of Trade called on President Winter of the Rapid Transit Company and demanded a substitute plan. They contended that the railroad people had no right to run trains on the surface and that the through trains would injure the business of the storekeepers on the street.

The railroad people have proposed an incline at Thirty-sixth street and are almost ready to begin the operation of the service. President Winter told the committee that if a plan agreeable to all could be devised it would be adopted.

If you would like to see what the cloths are, send for samples, measuring instructions and eight fashion cards.

The Taxpayers Association fought long and earnestly for the service now in sight and they are bitter at the opposition of the Board of Trade.
